Employee Coverage Effective Date

To become insured, you must satisfy the eligibility requirements listed above and be actively at work (able to perform all normal duties of your job) on the first day of the pay period in which the allotment is received through a payroll deduction. If you are not actively at work on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance, your insurance will not become effective until the day after you complete one full day of active work as an eligible employee.

Please contact FedAdvantage Service Center at 1.866.973.6605 for more information regarding the requirements that must be satisfied for your insurance to become effective.

Understanding Your Plan Design

- | | |
|--|--|
| Benefit Waiting Period | If your claim for LTD benefits is approved by The Standard, benefits become payable after you have been continuously disabled for 30 days and remain disabled. Benefits are not payable during the benefit waiting period. |
| Own Occupation Definition of Disability | For the benefit waiting period and the first 24 months for which LTD benefits are paid, you are considered disabled when you are unable as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of your own occupation AND are suffering a loss of at least 20 percent of your indexed predisability earnings when working in your own occupation. You are not disabled merely because your right to perform your own occupation is restricted, including a restriction or loss of license. |
| Any Occupation Definition of | After the own occupation period of disability, you will be considered disabled if you are unable as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder to perform |

Disability with reasonable continuity the material duties of any occupation.

Maximum Benefit Period If you become disabled before age 62, LTD benefits may continue during disability until you reach age 65. If you become disabled at age 62 or older, the benefit duration is determined by your age when disability begins:

Age	Maximum Benefit Period
62	3 years 6 months
63	3 years
64	2 years 6 months
65	2 years
66	1 year 9 months
67	1 year 6 months
68	1 year 3 months
69+	1 year

Deductible Income Deductible income is income you receive or are eligible to receive while LTD benefits are payable. Deductible income includes, but is not limited to:

- Sick pay, personal time off (PTO), annual or personal leave pay, severance pay or other forms of salary contribution (including donated amounts) paid
- Benefits under any workers' compensation law or similar law
- Amounts under unemployment compensation law
- Social Security disability or retirement benefits, including benefits for your spouse and children
- Benefits under your Federal Employees Retirement System (F.E.R.S) or Civil Service Retirement System (C.S.R.S).
- Disability benefits from any other group insurance
- Disability or retirement benefits under your employer's retirement plan
- Benefits under any state disability income benefit law or similar law
- Earnings from work activity while you are disabled, plus the earnings you could receive if you work as much as your disability allows
- Amounts due from or on behalf of a third party because of your disability, whether by judgment, settlement or other method
- Any amount you receive by compromise, settlement or other method as a result of a claim for any of the above

Benefit Calculation

Example The LTD benefit amount is determined by multiplying your insured predisability earnings by the specified benefit percentage. This amount is then reduced by deductible income. In the example below, the LTD benefit amount is 60 percent of insured predisability earnings. If your monthly earnings before becoming disabled were $4,500, and you now receive a monthly Social Security disability benefit of $1,200 and a monthly retirement benefit of $900, your monthly LTD benefit would be calculated as follows:

Insured predisability earnings	$4,500
LTD benefit percentage	X 60%
	$2,700
Less Social Security disability benefit	-$1,200
Less retirement benefit	-$900
Amount of LTD benefit	$600

Want to figure out the cost of your Long Term Disability benefit? Here is a calculator worksheet to use as a guide. This example uses an annual salary of $50,000 for a non-special group's member in the 35-44-year old age range:

LTD Example

1. Enter your annual salary	$	$50,000
2. Calculate your bi-weekly salary by dividing Line 1 by 26 (weeks). This amount cannot exceed $6,923.04		$1,923.08
3. Multiply Line 2 by the appropriate rate to get your per-pay period cost. Use the rate key above to obtain the rate for your age, occupation and desired benefit option. For the example, cost was determined using rates for a non-law enforcement member age 35 to 44 LTD Only: $0.0062 \times $1,923.08 =$		$11.92
4. Add administrative fee		$1.00
5. Round to the nearest dollar. This is the per-pay period cost.		$13.00

Note: If you are a monthly paid employee the administrative premium fee is $2.00 instead of $1.00.
